

Giancarlo Cicolini was born in Ortona (CH) on March 18, 1970. He got Bachelor's Degree in nursing in 2002 with 110/110 cum laude – University “G. d’Annunzio”, Chieti-Pescara, Italy. He got Master Degree in “Nursing and Midwifery Sciences” in 2005 with 110/110 cum laude - University of Aquila, Italy. In 2010 holds the title of PhD in “Physiopathology of Metabolism”, University “G. d’Annunzio” Chieti-Pescara, Italy.

He obtained National Scientific Qualification 2017 both as Associate Professor and Full Professor (06/M1) – Public Health, Nursing, Medical Statistic.

He is author of publications in international journals. His scientific activity concerns studies in nursing science and public health.

He has been Director of health professions in Local Health Service - ASL02 Abruzzo, Italy. Since November 2019 he is Researcher - Department of Biomedical Science and Human Oncology, University of Bari "Aldo Moro".